Fred Webber brings to the mediation table extensive experience in providing practical, effective legal and business solutions for his clients in all aspects of their commercial relationships.

Mr. Webber has practised law for over 37 years. He was senior in-house counsel at Nortel Networks Limited and General Electric Canada, and counsel for a number of smaller high-tech companies. This experience allowed him to develop the skills required to achieve results that met the interests of all parties. His areas of expertise are:

- information technology
- intellectual property
- commercial contracts
- distribution, marketing & competition issues
- product liability
- statutory and contract interpretation
- wrongful dismissal
- joint venture, shareholder & partnership issues
- torts/negligence

Mr. Webber received his Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of Toronto in 1964 and his law degree from U of T in 1967. He was called to the bar in 1969 and is a member of the Canadian Bar Association.
